you wish to know how Santal Claus and The Times and the St. Nicholas Giri will go about the great task of making the children happy Christmas eve? Of course you do, for are you not one of that happy throng whose Christmas Christmas offerings have swelled our toy fund until the Santa Claus storeom in the Munsey building is nearly ditting its sides for joy?

The toys are a gift from the people to the people. Therefore, the distribution will take place under the direction of a committee of five public spirited men and women, Isaac Gans, chairman; Judge William H. Judge William H. Judge William H. De Lacy, James E. West, Miss Mary Hessler, and Miss Juanita Kaufman. And if Santa Claus had peeped down every chimney th wide world over, he could not hav found five more valiant and trustworth messengers than these men and women, who are always working for the welfare and happiness of Washington children. Because the toys will more than fill the Santa Claus sleigh by Christmas Eve, many of them will be taken out een loaned Santa Claus and the St Nicholas Girl. Severa; of these cars

Who is he? Well, he's just plain Dr. G. H. McKeehan, of 1210 H street northwest, who says that as his contribution to Christmas he wants to make it a jigless occasion. He explains his proposition in a letter to The Times.

So now is the time to get jagless; if anyone should happen to be jagged or jaggy. The opportunity is open to all, for the Anti-Jag Salta Claus makes no distinction and will treat jags large and jags small. Just so it's a jag; that's all he's looking for. If anyone wants to be relieved, therefore, let him step up.

Produce the jag and Dr. McKeehan will do the rest.
